

Fabrizio Chiusolo is pediatric intensivist and anesthesiologist in ARCO Department, Bambino Gesù Children's Hospital, Rome (Italy), where he has started activity in 2003. After an experience at King's College Hospital (London, UK) and Catholic University Leuven (Bruxelle, Belgium) he has started the pediatric liver transplantation program in Bambino Gesù. He is also interested in mechanical ventilation, transfusion medicine, and nutrition in pediatric ill children.