

I am a Swiss and Australian trained Paediatrician and Paediatric Intensive Care Specialist with triple certification and more than 12 years of clinical experience. My special interest lies in respiratory pathophysiology and ventilation strategies to facilitate a patient tailored approach to ventilation. I currently work as a PICU SMO at Queensland Children's Hospital in Brisbane but am about to move to Sydney for a position at Westmead Children's Hospital.